interviewed Gaiman over a five-day period in New York, and the edited transcripts comprise The Sandman Companion. As Bender states in the introduction, The Sandman can be read without a guide. The good thing about The Sandman is that it operates on multiple, sometimes very subtle, levels; these interviews help peel back some of those layers. And besides, who hasn't wondered at some time or another exactly how an author came up with a character or story? Hy Bender, The Sandman Companion Hy Bender.
