Carole Pateman - Wikipedia Abstract and Keywords This chapter reviews The Sexual Contract, a work by Carole Pateman that identifies masculinized forms of domination and assumptions of male sex-right (the “sexual contract”) embodied in the concept of “contract” generally and specific to the classic social contract theories of Hobbes, Locke, and Rousseau. Carole Pateman, The Sexual Contract - Oxford Handbooks Hence Pateman's claim that 'the sexual contract is a repressed dimension of contract theory' is based on the misguided assumption that there is a social contract in the first place. In historical terms there is no social contract only a network of influence amongst powerful individuals who have established their dominance by physical force. The Sexual Contract: Amazon.co.uk: Carole Pateman ... In the Sexual Contract, Pateman addresses very seriously what she calls 'contractarian' theory. Such theory provides an account of the 'origin' of freedom in that politically guaranteed liberties come into being as a result of an original contract. Whether beginning
